This month's Kitchen, Bath & More Tour highlights solutions for challenged spaces

Participating designers are Rosella Gonzalez, Tatiana Machado-Rosas, Sol Quintana Wagoner, Kristen White, Suzi O'Brien, Beppie Mostert, Bonnie Bagley Catlin, Marie Cairns, Pamela Martin Johnston, Alison Green, Jen Pinto and Carly Blalock.

The San Diego chapter of the American Society of Interior Designers presents its annual Kitchen, Bath & More Tour this month — showcasing 12 homes in San Diego County. “The tour will cover design styles from minimalist and contemporary to new traditional,” says Bonnie Bagley Catlin, 2017 tour chair. “The event features a variety of price points and innovative kitchens, baths and home trends. It showcases nine whole-home remodels.”

Tour-goers can expect to see homes featuring color and strong patterns.

“Clients are more interested in personalizing their homes, steering away from plain, vanilla white,” Bonnie notes. “This is an opportunity for homeowners to see how differently design can be done.”

Designers and contractors will be on hand to answer questions, talk about the creative use of space and share effective cost strategies. ASID members participating with their projects include Tatiana Machado-Rosas of Jackson Design & Remodeling

(Rancho Peñasquitos), Sol Quintana Wagoner of Jackson Design & Remodeling (Del Mar), Jen Pinto of Jackson Design & Remodeling (Mission Hills), Alison Green of Jackson Design & Remodeling (Birdrock), Pamela Martin Johnston of Jackson Design & Remodeling (Sorrento Valley), Rosella Gonzalez of Jackson Design & Remodeling (Point Loma), Marie Cairns (Point Loma), Beppie Mostert (Carlsbad), Carly Blalock (Rancho Santa Fe), Kristen White of Marrokal Design & Remodeling (Del Mar), Suzi O'Brien (Sunset Cliffs) and Bonnie Bagley Catlin (Solana Beach). ❖
